

What can I give to you
A baby yet my King
What can I give the one
Who gave me everything
Nothing that I possess
Nothing I ever do
Could ever be enough for you
Lord in your presence I bow down
Lord in your presence I bow down

How can I live a life
That's worthy of your name
How can I spend each day
And perfectly attain
All that you want of me
All the you have for me
To live my life, to be for you
Lord, give me the strength to do your will
Lord, give me the strength to do your will

Lord I will give to you
The best that I can bring
Lord I will live for You
In honour of my King
Lord I will always be
Living each breath of life
My every thought, my everything
Lord I will live to do my part
Lord I will give to you my heart
